MEDIA RELEASE

Classification review announced for the film *Blinky Bill The Movie

The Classification Review Board has received an application to review the classification of the film Blinky Bill The Movie.

Blinky Bill The Movie was classified PG with the consumer advice ‘Mild themes and crude humour, some scenes may scare very young children’ by the Classification Board on 21 August 2015.

The Classification Review Board will meet on 10 September 2015 to consider the application. The decision and reasons will later be published on www.classification.gov.au.

If an individual or organisation wishes to apply for standing as an interested party to this review, please write to the Convenor of the Review Board. The names of interested parties will be disclosed in the Review Board’s final decision report, unless requested otherwise.

The closing date to lodge your application for standing as an interested party and any submissions is 8 September 2015. Please note that the Classification Review Board can only consider submissions about Blinky Bill The Movie itself and not any other matters relating to film classification policy or issues generally.

Submissions should be emailed to crb@classification.gov.au or sent to:
